

MARCH OF THE PHOENIX

An interactive walk on remembrance.

Over a century after the Great War ended, we look back and reflect on the meaning and relevance of remembrance. Who, how and why do we remember? Just as the early pilgrims, today's visitors to the battlefields of Flanders bring their own customs and rituals to commemorate their loved ones.

We visit some recently added headstones at a local military cemetery and contemplate a traditional Maori ceremony at the New Zealand Memorial Park. The March of the Phoenix is the unique introduction to your new environment. All participants will discover the diversity of war represented in the memorials. All Global Peace Games nationalities are mixed as are the victims of the Great War.

Participants are asked to be mindful of the environment and respectful of one another, throughout the Global Peace Games. The March of the Phoenix will place you in a historical walk that will help you contextualise your emotions and thoughts on why you are at the Global Peace Games.

The off the beaten track trail will bring us to the beautiful Island of Ireland Peace Park with its magnificent round tower.

WRITE DOWN A FACT THAT YOU REMEMBER ABOUT THE MARCH OF THE PHOENIX?