

Me, Myself and I

Introducing activity participants Global Peace Games

Purpose:

- youngsters can present their selves in an original way
- youngsters can express elements of their identity
- youngsters get to know each other's names
- youngsters get to know a part of each other's identity (religion, roots, hobby, ...)

Setting:

- Staff gives instruction to youngsters to make a name badge and encourage them to put some of their personality in the badge.
- we provide different materials (see below) and challenge the youngsters to make an original name badge that they will wear the rest of the day.
- We provide some examples. Staff members make an original name badge for themselves.
- Youngsters have some time (up to 10 minutes) to make their badge. We don't force them to be original, if they just want to write their name it's ok.
- We don't present in group, they discover the others their badges during the day, lunch, downtime ..

Materials:

- colored pencils,
- emoji stickers (<https://www.bol.com/nl/p/iphone-emoji-stickers-1300-whatsapp-emoji-stickers/9200000063028187/?suggestionType=suggestedsearch&bltgh=tqkiub0XPtrlKcxdJBZM7w.1.26.ProductTitle>)
- markers in different colors
- name badges
- paper and scissors.