

Horseriding

Angie, my mother, used to do horseriding from she was age four.

My mum then went to riding lessons when she was seven for four at Milbridge Riding School.

Her first pony's name was Spice. She rode Spice for three years.

My Mum started horse riding because she really like horses.

The thing she is most proud of was being placed 2nd at Balmoral and qualifying for the Horse of the Year Show.